Terms and Conditions

The submission of this application form constitutes a Legal Agreement to join South Wales Chamber of Commerce and Mid Wales Chamber of Commerce and confirms agreement to the terms and conditions herein. Membership of South Wales Chamber of Commerce and Mid Wales Chamber of Commerce 'SMWCC' is open to any type of trading entity or educational establishment regardless of their size or location.

Chamber membership is a business entitlement rather than a personal one. All employees of the Member are entitled to all Chamber benefits and services when working on behalf of the Member employer.

Membership fees are based on the number of employees in the Member organisation when the fee is due. Inaccurate or false information may invalidate the membership and in turn invalidate any inclusive business services. Where information provided is found to be inaccurate or false leading to a lower membership fee than appropriate, SMWCC reserves the right to refuse, cancel or amend membership.

Chamber membership is for a period of 12 months, commencing when payment is received by SMWCC. Members are automatically invoiced for the next membership period as each 12 month term expires. Membership fees are reviewed annually. The current tariff is available on the website. The membership fee is non-refundable and membership is non-transferable. The application form is deemed to be signed when submitted online.

SMWCC are forms of business networks whose goal is to further the interest of its members. It achieves this, in part, by facilitating the introduction of Members to other member, and non-member organisations and services, where a potential benefit is perceived.

If a member purchases a service, product or takes advice or assistance from another Member of SMWCC or an organisation they have been introduced to by SMWCC, the arrangement is made purely between those entities. Furthermore, the advice provided by Chamber employees is intended as guidance only and should not be relied upon or acted upon as substantive advice. SMWCC does not accept any liability for the service or product sold or the advice or assistance provided whatsoever. Members should conduct their own due diligence, seeking independent professional advice in accordance with the nature of their problem.

Newport and Gwent Chamber of Commerce, Enterprise & Industry 'NGCCEI' trading as SMWCC is the data controller for any personal information provided. By submitting an application form, consent is given for any personal data to be held and utilised in accordance with the terms and conditions herein.

SMWCC communicates regularly with its Members by email, post and telephone with information which could be of interest to them. These communications relating to services, products and events are an integral part of the Membership package. By joining, the Member agrees to be contacted by SMWCC in this manner.

Membership details are shared with carefully selected business service providers who may contact Members to explain the benefits of those services. By joining, the Member consents to the sharing of data with, and to be contacted by, those providers.

Members can resign from SMWCC at any time in writing to: South Wales Chamber of Commerce, Orion Suite, Enterprise Way, Newport, NP20 2AQ or Mid Wales Chamber of Commerce, The Business Unit, Coleg Powys, Llanidloes Road, Newtown, SY16 4HU. Resignations received during a membership period will not be subject to a refund (in whole or in part) of the membership fee.

Please note that only written resignations can be accepted.

SMWCC reserve the right to refuse any application or cancel any membership without disclosing the reason.
